(f) valid driving licence in the name of the person applying to be married; and

• Evidence of either of the person's parents' British citizenship or settled status at the time of the person's birth (e.g. a passport describing the relevant parent as a

British citizen or indicating that he or she then had indefinite leave to enter or remain); and

• The person's parents' marriage certificate (if British citizenship is claimed through the person's father)

Born on or after 1st July 2006

• The person's full birth certificate showing the parents' (or, as the case may be, parent's) details; and

• One of the following documents:-

(a) utility bill dated no more than three months before the date on which it is provided;

(b) bank or building society statement or passbook dated no more than one month before the date on which it is provided;

(c) council tax bill dated no more than 12 months before the date on which it is

provided;

(d) mortgage statement dated no more than 12 months before the date on which it is provided;

(e) current residential tenancy agreement;

(f) valid driving licence in the name of the person applying to be married; and

• Evidence of either of the person's parents' British citizenship or settled status at the time of the person's birth (e.g. a passport describing the relevant parent as a

remain)

NB: A mortgage statement or valid driving licence are documents which are most likely to match the names on a birth certificate so I would ask to see one of those in the first instance.
